

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY – VIGIL MECHANISM

BACKGROUND

In this ever changing and dynamic environment, carrying business to meet customer expectations / every stakeholder (both external and Internal) is never easy without highest ethical behavior and corporate governance.

The possibility of unethical behavior / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts / employee misconduct / illegal acts etc. by various people in the organization's operations can never be ruled out and ignorance of this possibility demonstrates poor corporate governance with potentially disastrous consequences. The happenings of this unethical behavior / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts / illegal acts etc. at any level of organization hierarchy can only come to the knowledge of top management when there exists proper mechanism with the organization to report the same to top management by the person without fear who is aware of the same.

However, fear of retaliation and ignorance of where to report unethical behavior / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts / illegal acts etc. usually discourage a potential whistleblower from reporting the same. Therefore, it's top management responsibility to a create such comfortable environment & confidence to all the persons dealing with the company to fearlessly report any unethical behavior / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts to the designated authority which is the first step towards good, effective & efficient corporate governance.

In a view to create such environment, the management has taken initiative for the implementation of Whistleblower Policy (the "Policy").

Additionally, Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 mandates the following classes of companies to constitute a Vigil Mechanism –

- A. Every listed company;
- B. Every other company which accepts deposits from the public;
- C. Every company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs.50 crores.

Regulation 4(2)(d)(iv) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations") mandates that the listed entity shall devise an effective Vigil Mechanism / Whistle Blower Policy enabling stakeholders, including individual employees and their representative bodies, to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices.
